SCTE Gala Awards Dinner Dance 2016

Lincoln's Inn, London | Saturday 9th April 2016

2016 will see a welcome return to Lincoln's Inn, a stunning venue in Central London, for the SCTE Gala Awards Dinner on Saturday 9th April 2016. Lincoln's Inn is one of the four ancient Inns of Court which can call to the bar members qualified for the rank of Barrister. The Great Hall, where the Dinner will take place, is considered to be the best surviving example of Tudor Revival Style of its kind in London. On the north wall is a huge and magnificent fresco showing the world's law-givers from Moses to Edward I. This, together with the huge collection of paintings and armorial bearings, panelled walls and stained glass windows add to the opulence of this stunning building. A totally unique venue and an event which is not to be missed so, please join us for what is sure to be another memorable evening with the SCTE.

The packed schedule for the evening will encompass a Champagne Reception with entertainers, a sumptuous 4-course banquet with wine and liqueurs in the Great Hall, a souvenir gift for every attendee, the presentation of the Society Awards and last, but not least, dancing into the wee-small hours to a live band. It has all the hallmarks of being another fantastic SCTE evening and one not to be missed.

A glossy brochure on the Dinner, giving full details of the event, is currently being circulated to members and bookings are now being taken. Recent SCTE Dinners have been a sell-out almost before they were advertised and we expect a similar response for 2016, so in order to avoid disappointment, tickets are now available at the highly subsidised rate of £100 (inc VAT) per person for SCTE Members and £150 (inc VAT) per person for non-SCTE Members.
