

SCTE 2015 BURSARIES

NOMINATION FORM

FTTH 2015

The SCTE™ is offering members, who would not otherwise be able to attend, the opportunity to apply for two new bursaries for the FTTH (Fibre to the Home) conference and exhibition from 10-12 February 2015 at EXPO XX1 in Warsaw, Poland. The bursaries include European economy flights (if required), hotel for two nights and conference tickets. SCTE members also qualify for a 20% discount on attendance at this event. Please see <http://www.thescte.eu/index.php/members/members-discounts> for further details.

ANGA COM 2015

In partnership with ANGA, the SCTE is proud to announce its ongoing bursaries for the ANGA COM Conference and Trade Fair in Cologne, Germany on 9-11 June 2015. The SCTE will be giving away 20 places – each bursary package includes technical conference registration, economy flights from anywhere in Europe and three nights' hotel accommodation in Cologne. Each package is worth around £800.

IBC 2015

In partnership with IBC, the Society will be awarding four bursaries for the IBC Congress in Amsterdam from 10-15 September 2015. These bursaries will cover economy flights within Europe and hotel accommodation expenses for SCTE members.

Each bursary will provide a full 5-day conference registration, entry to the exhibition and up to £1,000 to cover travel and hotel expenses. This is a unique opportunity for engineers and technicians to hear about the latest developments from the top people in the broadband industry. In addition, the exhibition, the largest of its kind outside the USA, provides a showcase for the latest equipment and ideas.

The offer is open to all SCTE members and there are no restrictions on age or grade. Bursary applicants should write up to 250 words on why they would benefit from receiving this award and email their applications to the SCTE at office@theSCTE.eu or complete the form below.
